

Senator Joseph E. Robach
56th Senate District

Invites you to a groundbreaking conference:

Veteran Friendly Campuses

Wednesday, December 2nd, 2009

9:00 A.M. – 11:00 A.M.

Warshof Conference Center

Flynn Campus Center

Monroe Community College, Brighton Campus

(Attendees are asked to use Parking Lot N, and signs will be displayed to direct you to the parking area)

Presented by:

New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs

Senator Robach and the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs are partnering to initiate a program designed to raise awareness of and address the issues facing both veterans and institutions of higher education throughout the Rochester area.

- Increase the Retention Rate of Students who are Veterans
- Create higher rates of students and colleges taking full advantage of available benefits
- Implementation of the August 1, 2009 Post-9/11 GI Bill
- Development of "Veterans Transition Centers" to educate and support administrators and students

Essential Information for:

Presidents / Deans / Administrators

Admissions / Financial Aid Officers

Veterans Affairs Directors

Veterans Academic Advisors / Counselors

To register, or receive further information, please contact Joe Agostinelli at the Office of Senator Joseph E. Robach (585) 225-3650 or email agostine@senate.state.ny.us.
Registration requested by November 24th, 2009.