

KOMA GANDY

Vice President, Leadership and Business Segment, Skillsoft

Koma Gandy is Vice President, Leadership and Business Segment at Skillsoft, providing leadership, long-term strategic direction, and operational oversight of Skillsoft's Leadership and Business Global offerings that enable organizations to reimagine and transform their teams' productivity and leadership journeys.

Koma brings over two decades of experience in multiple industries to her role, most recently as Vice President, Head of Curriculum at Codecademy. Koma led and managed a diverse, high-performing team delivering best-in-class interactive educational content in high-demand technology skills to a global learning community. Prior to joining Codecademy, Koma held leadership roles at EY and Morgan Stanley where she led teams that delivered solutions integrating cutting-edge technology, new business processes, and industry best practices. In addition to her work in financial services, Koma has extensive business-government experience gained from her time at The Cohen Group where she advised domestic and international clients in the aerospace and defense industries, and at Booz Allen Hamilton where she advised Department of Defense clients on information security and biometric technologies.

In addition to her professional experience, Koma sits on several non-profit boards dedicated to enriching the lives of young people through arts education, access to medical treatment, and sports-based youth development. Koma also serves as an Independent Director on the board of USA Rugby, National Governing Body for the sport of rugby in the United States and member of the US Olympic and Paralympic Committee.

Koma began her career as an officer in the US Navy, serving on both active duty and in the Navy Reserve, and completed several deployments. Koma received a BA from Harvard University and an MBA from Georgetown University.